

MountainWest

RubyConf 2007

Join us at the MountainWest RubyConf
March 16th-17th in the Salt Lake City Public Library

Registration for this event is only $50, but is limited and is selling fast.

This regional Ruby and Ruby on Rails conference features a great line up of well-known Rubyists from around the country.

Chad Fowler is our keynote speaker, and will be joined by presenters including: John Lam, Charles Nutter, Ara T Howard, Gregory Brown, James Britt, and more.

This will be an incredible opportunity to learn more about Ruby and Ruby on Rails, to rub shoulders with some of the brightest stars in the Ruby world, and to get involved with the local Ruby community.
